VIVIDH - AN EFFECTIVE SCHOOL

Mrs. Kavitha Nandakumar

Founder Trustee and Sr. Principal

" What makes a child gifted and talented may not always be good grades in school, but a different way of looking at the world and learning"- Chuck Grassley.

As an educational visionary, I strongly believe in the principle goal of education in the Schools should be creating men and women who are capable of doing new things, not simply impressed by what other generations have done.

Nine years have passed swiftly, like a fleeting moment. And we are stepping into the tenth year , we should remember that it is a fresh start. Hence, we begin this 10th year setting a goal of making VIVIDH an " Effective School."

What makes a school an "Effective School" is its aim to ensure that every student is achieving the targeted learning outcome; to focus on holistic growth of a student, to assemble a capable and motivated team of teachers, to connect with parents, students and community and finally its robust assessment system.

One thing we should understand that schooling and education are two different things. Education is more meaningful which is where our blended curriculum emphasizes holistic learning. (Academics, sports, Music, Dance, Drama and Art). At the end of schooling every child should have a sense of self identity. Therefore, we are not just creating a student but also shaping up a person with human / humane qualities.

Another very significant goal is creating global citizens to solve global issues through embedding international policy in our curriculum.

Hence, it is imperative to change from learn, unlearn and relearn to skilling, reskilling and up skilling.

"Education is the most powerful weapon which you can use to change the world."

Principal

Yet again, we come together through the pages of The Quill—and what a journey it has been. Each edition is not merely a collection of words, but a living reflection of voices that refuse to be silent, minds that refuse to be confined, and spirits that dare to soar.

At VIVIDH, we believe that true education goes beyond information—it shapes who we become. We strive to ignite that spark within every learner: the courage to question, the strength to create, and the wisdom to express. What you hold in your hands is not just creativity; it reflects conviction, character, and clarity of thought.

Our VIVIANs have once again proven that when young minds are given the freedom to explore, they do not merely participate—they lead, inspire, and redefine possibilities.

This year has been marked by remarkable achievements—from outstanding performances in the ICSE and ISC Board Examinations to National-level accomplishments in sports, along with significant academic advancements such as the introduction of the Oxford curriculum in the Primary Section.

I extend my deepest appreciation to the students, teachers, and the editorial team whose dedication has transformed ideas into impact. Your commitment ensures that The Quill remains not just a magazine, but a true movement of expression.

To our readers—may these pages challenge you, move you, and awaken something within you. Let this edition remind you that your voice matters, your ideas have power, and your creativity can shape the world.

As we continue our journey of Educating Hearts and Minds, may we never cease to think deeply and create meaningfully.

Happy reading and keep shining!

Chief Editor's Note

As we turn the pages of this new edition of Quill Publishing, we step into an exciting chapter of growth and transformation. This Quill release stands as a milestone — a celebration of creativity, courage, and youthful expression.

Through this platform, we strive to nurture young voices and give wings to their thoughts and dreams. Every poem, story, and reflection in these pages reflects imagination in its purest form. Our vision is to build a space where ideas flourish, confidence grows, and words leave a lasting impact.

It has been a joy bringing this edition to life, and we sincerely hope it inspires and delights you as much as it inspired us.

VIVIDH – A World of Opportunities

What I like most about VIVIDH is that it organizes various interschool competition and intra school events, which help students improve their communication skills and build confidence. It actively engages all students in various activities and ensures that everyone gets an opportunity to participate and showcase their talents.

VIVIDH focuses on both academics and co-curricular activities, helping students grow in both areas. It also encourages students to excel in sports and gives equal importance to all events and programmes.

Initiatives like VIVI Bank helps students understand the importance of saving money. Programmes like Pentability develop five essential skills, and SUPW activities promote practical learning and social responsibility.

The motto of VIVIDH, “Educating Hearts and Minds,” reflects its commitment to holistic development by nurturing knowledge, values, and character together.

VIVIDH truly supports the overall growth and development of every student. All these opportunities make me feel proud to be a vibrant VIVIAN.

FAREWELL NOTE

My School – A Journey to Remember

As I step out of the school gates as a Grade 12 graduate, I feel grateful and nostalgic. Having joined this school in the 5th standard, these years have shaped both my education and my character.

The classrooms, lessons, laughter, and friendships I found here will always remain special. I am truly thankful to my teachers for their guidance and to my friends for making this journey memorable.

This school has been more than a place of learning—it has been a second home. As we move on to new paths, the memories and values we gained here will stay with us forever.

With heartfelt thanks and fond memories — Farewell.

ARTICLES

A Day without Hometask..

A day without hometask feels like a surprise holiday in a busy week. When the teacher announces, “No hometask today,” students feel happy and relaxed. They can spend time with family, play games, read books, or enjoy creative activities like drawing and music.

Such a break reduces stress and refreshes young minds. When students return to school, they feel more energetic and focused. It also helps them understand the importance of balancing study and relaxation. A homework-free day is not about avoiding work, but about recharging the mind for better learning and success. Ofcourse, hometask plays an important role in learning, but occational breaks help students return to their studies with renewed energy and enthusiasm.

Teamwork makes Dreamwork

We all have our own dreams and work hard to achieve them. But sometimes, we share a common dream as a team. To reach that goal, unity is very important. Without unity, there is no understanding, and success becomes difficult.

Teamwork means sharing ideas, supporting one another, and working together. When everyone contributes their thoughts and efforts, the dream becomes easier to achieve.

So always stay united, because teamwork truly makes the dream work.

A World without the Internet

The internet is one of the most powerful inventions in history. It connects people around the world and changes the way we work, learn, and communicate.

Without the internet, communication would be slower and people would depend on letters, landlines, and face-to-face conversations. Education would rely mainly on textbooks and libraries, making research more difficult.

In conclusion, a world without the internet would be slower and quieter. It might improve personal relationships, but access to information and global connections would be limited.

The Role of Discipline in Student Life

Discipline is very important in school. It helps students learn, grow, and become responsible. Disciplined students follow rules, respect teachers, and stay punctual and organized. They complete their homework on time and study regularly, which helps them perform well in exams. Through school rules and activities, teachers guide students to develop good habits. Discipline plays a key role in shaping successful and well-behaved individuals.

If I were a School Principal

If I were a school principal, I would try to make my school a happy and friendly place for all students, just like my Principal Joshua Sir. I would encourage students to do well in both studies and activities such as sports, music, and art.

I would support teachers in making lessons interesting and help students feel comfortable asking questions. I would also make sure the school is clean, safe, and disciplined.

My aim would be to create a positive learning environment where every student can learn, grow, and achieve their dreams.

ARGUMENTATIVE WRITING

Should Hometask given everyday?

Hometask has always been an important part of school life. Many believe that it should be given every day, while others disagree. In my opinion, hometask should be meaningful and balanced, not excessive.

Hometask helps students revise and understand lessons better. For example, practising math problems improves accuracy and confidence. However, some students feel too much hometask can cause stress and tiredness. After spending many hours at school, students need time to rest, play, and be with family.

Therefore, hometask is important, but it should be given in reasonable amounts. So that students can balance both study and relaxation.

Is Online Learning Better than Classroom Learning?

Online learning allows students to study from anywhere and access a wide range of resources. It is flexible and convenient for many learners.

However, classroom learning helps students interact directly with teachers and classmates. It also helps in clearing doubts quickly and developing social skills.

In my opinion, classroom learning is better because it provides a more active and effective learning environment.

NARRATIVE WRITING

A Christmas to Remember

“Sometimes the smallest wishes bring the greatest happiness.” The best surprise of my life came on a magical Christmas day at my school. Every year, our school celebrates Christmas in a special way. We are asked to write a letter to Santa and share our wishes. While many of my friends wished for toys and chocolates, I wished for something close to my heart — a small white rabbit. I had always loved rabbits and dreamt of having one as my little companion. Soon the celebration day arrived. The school was beautifully decorated with stars, bells and fairy lights. The hall was filled with laughter and Christmas carols. Suddenly we heard “Ho! Ho! Ho!” and Santa entered with a big bag loaded with gifts. When Santa called my name, my heart started beating faster. I went to the stage and he handed me a small box with tiny holes on top. When I opened it, I saw a soft little rabbit inside. Tears of joy filled my eyes because my dream had come true. That day became the best surprise of my life, reminding me that sometimes even the smallest wishes can come true.

An Unforgettable Gift

One of the most memorable moments of my school life happened on Christmas Eve. As the Fine Arts Secretary of the Student Council, I helped teachers with backdrop designs, stage decorations, and organising school events throughout the year.

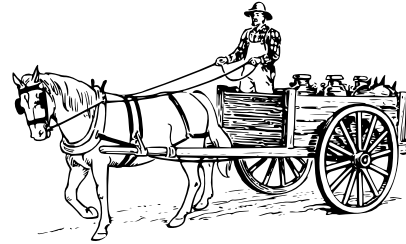

During the Christmas celebration, the school management called my name on stage and appreciated my efforts. They also presented me with a special gift. I felt very happy and proud, and the applause from my parents and friends made the moment even more special.

SHORT STORIES

A Rich Man Without Money

Karim was a poor man, but he was never idle. Every morning before sunrise, he pushed his old cart through the streets, collecting scrap metal to sell. The cart squeaked with every step, and so did his tired knees, but Karim never stopped.

He earned very little each day - just enough to buy food and keep going. When work was scarce and his hands ached, he reminded himself that honest labour was better than easy excuses. "As long as I work," he believed, "I still have dignity."

One evening, Karim found a wallet on the road. It was full of money - more than he earned in months. His stomach tightened, but his heart was steady. He restored the wallet to its owner, who was shocked by his honesty.

The man offered a reward, but Karim smiled and said, "I already have what I need - my self-respect." Karim walked home tired and poor, yet lighter than before. He had no wealth to count, but he owned something greater: the pride of hard work and an honest heart.

Why do we drink water?

Water is very important for our life. We drink water to stay healthy and strong. Our bodies need water to digest food and carry nutrients to all parts of the body. It helps keep our bodies cool when we sweat and gives us energy to play and study. Water also removes waste from our bodies and keeps our skin fresh. If we do not drink enough water, we may feel tired and sick. So we should drink clean water every day to stay active and healthy.
